

Career Opportunity

Resident Project Representative

- Firm: FEI Engineers, Inc.
- Job Location: Bennett, CO
- Position Title: Resident Project Representative (RPR)
- Requirements: Min. 4+ Years of Experience; Bachelors of Science Degree in Engineering or Construction Management Experience

Details

- 4+ Years of Experience
- Bachelor of Science Degree in Engineering or Construction Management Degree

Action

- Please submit a cover letter and current resume including salary history, requirements, and references to Bob Frachetti, PE, at job.opportunities@feengineers.com

Additional Information

- Full time salaried position with benefits.
- FEI intends on reviewing qualified responses and scheduling phone and in person interviews in early June.

The position is expected to be filled by June 15, 2017.

- You are invited to learn more about FEI, our projects, and clients on our website at www.feengineers.com.

We encourage qualified applicants from all regions of the United States.

FEI ENGINEERS (FEI)

FEI is hiring for a full-time RPR for the Town of Bennett Wastewater Treatment Facility Improvements project, a $6MM project.

FEI is a dynamic and growing consulting engineering firm specializing in water & wastewater treatment facility and infrastructure planning and design, with offices in Denver and Durango, Colorado. We believe in professional integrity, engineering excellence, technical innovation, open communication, and mutual respect. We provide high quality professional services and projects.

The successful candidate will be an intelligent, self-motivated, hard-working team player with a positive attitude and excellent communication skills.

JOB DESCRIPTION & QUALIFICATIONS

- Construction Project Duration - 18 months from Construction Notice to Proceed being issued June 15th. Upon completion FEI intends on continuing the employment relationship with the successful candidate.
- June 15th start date preferred; flexibility for a July 1st start date for the right candidate.
- Experience working with EJCDC Contract Documents and understanding of duties and requirements identified in EJCDC E-500 for Resident Project Representative Services; a link to EJCDC E-500, Exhibit D - Duties, Responsibilities, and Limitations of Authority of Resident Project Representative is provided on our website for reference:

<http://www.feengineers.com/uploads/1/2/0/4/12040169/rpr.pdf>

(Copy and paste link above to your browser)

- Bachelor of Science Degree in Engineering or Construction Management.
- 4+ years of progressive Water & Wastewater RPR services and/or relevant engineering experience. Minimum of two similar water or wastewater treatment facility project experience.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills to collaborate internally and externally including; negotiations, listening, cooperation, and client management.